

Framework for North Boeing Field PCBs

Outcomes	Outputs	Tools	Responsible Party
Short-term No ongoing discharges of PCBs from Slip 4 outfall to Puget Sound	Treatment facility (end-of-pipe) to remove PCBs or Collect all storm water and ship offsite for proper treatment and disposal	Voluntary MTCA Interim Action CERCLA 106 Order TSCA Penalties TSCA Civil Action CWA 311 Order	Boeing Ecology EPA EPA EPA, DOJ EPA
Sources of PCBs to storm water system are identified	Remedial Investigation and Feasibility Study	MTCA	Ecology
Sources of PCBs are removed and no longer entering storm water system	Remedial Action	MTCA TSCA Self-Implementing Clean-up	Ecology EPA
Storm water permit to address PCB discharges to Puget Sound is effective and enforceable	Development of new permit	CWA - NPDES	Ecology - EPA
Long-term Sediments in Lower Duwamish do not contain harmful levels of PCBs	Sediment removal action	CERCLA	EPA